County Fair Mall gets a Christmas miracle

BY EVELYN HANFORD

It's official. Guy Scamuro & Sons has purchased the County Fair Mall. The public announcement, which came out during a special afternoon event at the mall on Wednesday, Dec. 14, closed the chapter of the mall's tumultuous future after Real Can announced its decision to close its doors $460,000.

Over the last number of years back in September and the company's intention to demolish the building in early November.

After much effort from Mayor Shawn Pawluk and the town's economic development department, town staff, councillors and residents are breathing a sigh of relief.

Pawluk said he was surprised to hear of Real Can's decision to close the mall back in September, and called it devastating.

Since then he's been working hard with town staff behind the scenes to keep the structure standing.

"It's fantastic that we have a local developer that wants that parcel of land and that building," said Cyril Cooper, the town's manager of economic development.

Malcolm Morris, the town's chief administrative officer, said investment in economic development and tourism has been a priority for the town since the closure of the County Fair Mall would've been a significant loss.

Ho-Ho-Hole in one for Smiths Falls!

Local golfing sensations Brittany and Brooke Henderson were special guests at the Smiths Falls Santa Claus Parade on Dec. 10. Here they are during a private photo shoot prior to the parade. This year's event had more than 50 entries. It was well attended from town as well as from neighbouring municipalities.
